- Natural Resources Conservation Assistance Available Through NRCS

Free Workshop - Revised Date!
Tuesday, July 30, 2024
8:30 AM - 11:30 AM

Rainwater is a free natural resource which we take for granted. Rainwater is an excellent source of water for backyard gardening and for soilless gardening. With a little effort and investment, producers can save money on water bills by installing a rainwater catchment system. Join us to learn more. You don't want to miss this FREE workshop!
